Numb. 4884.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday August 7. to Thursday August 9. 1711.

Hamburgh, Aug. 11. N. S.

A Camp having been mark'd out at Grande, within four Leagues of this City, the Daniſh Army began their March thither from Rendsbourg on the 4th Inſtant. On the 8th his Majeſty caus'd the Cavalry to paſs in Review, and gave Orders for all the Troops to march the day following to Mollen, near Ratzebourg; where they will find a greater Plenty than in their laſt Camp at Grande. The Inconveniencies which they ſuffer'd there, are principally charged upon Lubeck and this Place; and have been openly reſented by his Daniſh Majeſty; who would not admit the Deputies of this City to an Audience, becauſe the Magiſtrates refus'd to furniſh him with a certain Quantity of dry Forage that had been requir'd of them. The Army will continue their March in a few days from Mollen to Gadebuſch, a Place within four Leagues of Wiſmar, where they will halt for ſome time. It is ſaid, that a Party of the Swediſh Forces, as they were Foraging in the Dutchy of Mecklenbourg, took ſeveral Waggons laden with Proviſions from Suerin, and intended for the uſe of his Daniſh Majeſty. They write from Landſberg, that the King of Poland was arriv'd at that Place, and had given Orders for the Saxon and Muſcovite Troops encamp'd there, to march to Mezeritz on the Obra, a ſmall River that falls into the Warta, near Schweitz; from whence it was reſolv'd to attempt the Paſſage of the Oder, between Francfort and Cuſtrim, in order to joyn the Danes. A triple Alliance having been concluded between the Kings of Poland and Denmark, and the Elector of Hanover, the two laſt of thoſe Princes have ſign'd it; and Count Lagnaſco has diſpatch'd it to Landsberg, where it is to be ſign'd, in like manner, by his Maſter the King of Poland. We hear eleven Swediſh Veſſels have been taken by the Danes, who have likewiſe intercepted ſome Letters from the Senate, importing, that the utmoſt diligence has been us'd in fitting out their Fleet, which is in a readineſs to ſail with the firſt fair Wind. 'Tis ſaid the Sickneſs continues at Copenhagen; and that they are apprehenſive of its beginning to appear in the Daniſh Army.

Camp at Aveſnes les Secques, Aug. 13. On Tueſday, the 11th Inſtant, early in the Morning, our Troops began to work upon the Lunettes which the Engineers had mark'd out in the Front of our Camp, between the Schelde and the Selle. They were Yeſterday ſo far perfected, that they were all mounted with Cannon in the Afternoon; and we have ſince join'd them by Lines, for the greater Security of the Camp, while we ſhall be oblig'd to employ great Numbers of our Troops on the other ſide the Schelde. Yeſterday, at Two in the Morning, his Grace the Duke of Marlborough, with Fifty Battalions, and Fifty-two Squadrons, paſs'd the Schelde; and having taken a View of Bouchain, and of the Entrenchments the Enemy have made from Bac au Vaſne to Wavrechin, gave Orders for our Men to begin the Lines of Circumvallation from the Schelde over againſt Neuville, to be continued from thence to the Senſet. The Mareſchal de Villars, with about a hundred Huſſars, came out of the Lines to obſerve our Motions; and a like Number of our Huſſars being order'd to attack theirs, four Squadrons of their Carabiniers, who were neareſt at hand, apprehending the Mareſchal to be in Danger, advanc'd to his Relief; upon which four of ours march'd, and charg'd them with ſuch Reſolution, that they immediately broke the Enemy's Squadrons, kill'd ſeveral of them and took a Brigadier, a Major, and a Captain of Carabiniers, the Mareſchal himſelf having narrowly eſcap'd. This Morning a Party of our Horſe brought in Priſoners twelve of the Enemy's Troopers, with forty-two Horſes, which they took as they were Foraging beyond Cambray.

The 14th, 8 in the Morning.

The Enemy having begun Yeſterday in the Evening 3 Redoubts between Bouchain and Wavrechin, as well for the preſerving their Communication with the Town, as for the preventing our carrying on our Line of Circumvallation to the Senſet, the Diſpoſition was made for attacking them this Morning with the Troops on the other Side, with which his Grace the Duke of Marlborough march'd at Three this Morning, having taken twenty Pieces of Cannon with him: And coming before the Redoubts at Break of Day, the Enemy immediately quitted them, and retir'd to their Entrenchments; upon which, his Grace gave Orders for our Workmen to continue their Work on their Line with all poſſible Diligence. It was conſiderably advanc'd laſt Night, and we hope it will be finiſh'd, and the Town thereby Inveſted to Morrow Morning, if we meet with no Obſtruction: To prevent which, his Grace has order'd the Troops on that ſide to be reinforc'd to One hundred Squadrons and Seventy Battalions.

Hague, Aug. 14. N. S. On Tueſday laſt the King of Pruſſia ſet out from Dieren on his way to Berlin: and the Day following, Monſieur Hymen, his Majeſty's Miniſter, returned hither. The ſame Day, Monſieur Hohendorf went from hence to the Army in Flanders, where he is to reſide with his Grace the Duke of Marlborough on the Part of the Prince of Savoy. Our Letters from the Frontiers adviſe, That the late Elector of Bavaria was ſtill at Luxemburgh on the 8th Inſtant; and it is not yet known whether he will proceed from thence to the Rhine, or return to Namur. We are adviſ'd, That the French have made a Detachment from their Army, of ſixteen Squadrons, that are order'd to march into Dauphine: and it is ſaid, thoſe Forces are to be followed very ſpeedily by another Detachment from the ſaid Army. For theſe Reaſons we are inclin'd to believe, they will not undertake any thing of Conſequence on the Rhine this Campaign, or be able to interrupt the Proceedings at Frankfort, where the Elector of Mayence arriv'd on the 7th Inſtant, as did likewiſe ſeveral of the Ambaſſadors, and we hear the reſt are on their way thither. The States of Holland are ſtill Aſſembled, but it is thought the Matters relating to a

Prohi-